Bed & Breakfast
Portobello Inn

*Overlooking the Beautiful
Mohawk Valley of Central NY*

Your hosts, Roland S. Randall, Steven A. Scarcia & Ralph A. Zammiello, cordially welcome you to Portobello Inn.

This classic home, constructed in the Italianate Style, has overlooked the Mohawk River Valley since before the 1840's. From our wrap around porch and Victorian veranda, we have views reminiscent of the Tuscan Hills of northern Italy.

With easy access to New York State Thruway exits 29A (Little Falls) & 30 (Herkimer), travel to local area attractions in Central NY's "Leatherstocking Region" is a snap!

Your Innkeeper Roland invites you to enjoy the Portobello experience.

There are plenty of places to stretch out and read, take long walks, cat-nap, or just relax and enjoy the fresh country air. As you walk out the front doors of the Inn and look across the fields, you'll see the famous Erie Canal quietly flowing by.

After your day's explorations and relaxation, you'll experience a wonderful night's sleep back at the Inn. Guest rooms are comfortable, bright, airy and each has its own private bathroom. You'll wake up to the smells of our country kitchen filled with mouth watering goodies just waiting for you to try. Start your day in our elegant dining room, or enjoy a relaxing summer breakfast on the veranda, with delicious home baked goods, beverages, seasonal fruits, and special entrees.
